It is important to pre-register as the workshop attendance is used to determine the amount of materials and reservations for meals. Reasonable accommodations are available upon request.

Workshop Description:

The strength of our Union rests with the recruitment and education of new activists, often in the role of Steward. This two-part workshop provides the skills that are needed to carry out the responsibilities of the Steward, including: communicating, organizing and leading employees in the workplace. This workshop is designed for Local/Unit Officers, Stewards, Activists and Grievance Representatives who are interested in building and strengthening the union. Participants must complete this workshop and be appointed by their Local/Unit President to be certified Stewards in CSEA.

Who Should Attend:

This workshop is designed for Local/Unit Officers, Stewards, Grievance Representatives, and Activists who are interested in building and strengthening the union.

Workshop Goals:

In this workshop participants will:

- Identify labor achievements and the Constitutional structure of CSEA
- Recognize their rights as Stewards and their role under the C.O.R.E. principle
- Discuss leadership characteristics
- Apply one-on-one techniques to build and strengthen the union

Workshop presented by The CSEA Education and Training Department
Danny Donohue, President
CSEA, AFSCME Local 1000, AFL-CIO
